RUTLAND SAWMILL WILL PHASE OUT WITHIN TWO MONTHS

Rutland Sawmills Ltd., a member of the Kelowna area industrial community for the past 24 years, is closing its operations. The move, which will affect 45 employees, was announced today by company president J. A. Olinger. He said the continuing rising cost of operations, along with the depressed lumber market prices during the past year, forced the decision. "In addition," he said, "we are faced with the ever-increasing volume of small wood and to date have not been successful in securing the necessary financing to modernize the plant." The closing of plant operations will be carried out in phases spread over the next two months. A company spokesman said some of the employees would be kept on the job longer than others. President Olinger said the company regretted the move and hoped customers would be patient during the phasing-out period.

Three Italians Charged With Spying For Soviet

TURIN, Italy (AP) — Three Italians were charged today with spying on U.S. military installations in Spain and Italy for the Soviet Union.

A Soviet embassy official named in the charges took the first plane from Rome to Moscow. There were unconfirmed reports the Italian government had ordered him out of the country.

State Attorney Domenico Janello said the charges resulted from an investigation of a widespread spy ring reported operating for the Soviet Union in Western Europe and the Mediterranean.

The three, held since March 15, were: a 39-year-old man, Giorgio Rinaldi, 39, whose stunt jumps gave him easy access to air bases, his wife, Angela Maria, 52, a wartime Fascist Auxiliary Corps member, and the Rinaldi's chauffeur, Armando Girard, 40.

The charges said the Italians had contact with Yuri Pavlenko, an attaché at the Soviet embassy in Rome, and with another Russian identified as Yuri Goudar.

Within a few hours after the charges were filed, Pavlenko, his wife Natalia and their six-year-old son, Anatoli, left aboard a Czech airliner for Prague en route to Moscow.

Rinaldi was a well-known anarchist who made exhibition jumps. Authorities said this activity gave him access to U.S. and other bases in Italy and other countries.

Rinaldi and his wife first came under surveillance in 1955 when they were reported to have met with a lieutenant colonel with the Soviet embassy in Rome.

If convicted, the three could get up to 30 years imprisonment.

Victoria Hurries Work Up

VICTORIA (CP) — The British Columbia Legislature held another all-night sitting that ended early today as the government pressed toward prorogation before Easter.

A total of 31 bills received third and final reading, including a Pollution Control Act, a bill to establish a B.C. harbors board and bills to control LSD.

The Social Credit government also had two announcements — that the freeze on construction of school activity rooms and gymnasiums is lifted and that Victoria will contribute about $140,000 toward a 10,000-seat, $500,000 junior sports stadium to be built in Burnaby.

Attorney-General Bonner said the harbors board bill will allow development of a superport at Roberts Bank, just south of Vancouver. He said it was part of a plan to ship a Crow's Nest area coal to Japan if and when Crow's Nest Industries Ltd. makes a deal with Japanese interests.

Long Fight Yet For Forces Bill

Another Chapter On Stolen Boats

HALIFAX (CP) — An RCAF Albatross aircraft today sighted an 84-foot dragger less than 12 hours after it was stolen from a wharf at Shelburne, N.S.

The Air-Sea Rescue Centre said the scallop dragger Hansen had been spotted about 80 miles south-southwest of here steering north from Shelburne. The Albatross was "maintaining surveillance."

The RCMP cutter Blue Heron was heading from Halifax to intercept the Hansen and was reported about 20 miles away from her at noon AST. It was not immediately known when the Heron would reach the stolen vessel.

Dragners and trawlers both use nets to trap fish. Dragners over 100 feet long are usually called trawlers.

The Hansen, owned by Shelburne Fisheries Ltd., is the second dragger to be stolen from a South Shore Nova Scotia port in less than a week.

Two men are believed to be aboard the dragger which was taken about 2 a.m. She was last reported heading out to sea.

The Canadian coast guard cutter Thomas Carleton has also been diverted to take part in the search, her second since last Friday.

The cutter intercepted the stolen dragger, N.S., dragger Cape Spry early Monday and RCMP officers aboard arrested 23-year-old Bruce Moore and charged him with the offence.

RCMP and rescue centre officials attributed the cause of the second theft to publicity given Friday's theft of the Cape Spry.

Robert Robertson, sales manager of Shelburne Fisheries Ltd., said the dragger was carrying 6,200 gallons of fuel when she was stolen, enough for at least two weeks.

However, he said he believed a lack of bread and two tins of sardines were the only foodstuffs aboard.

The dragger was to leave for the fishing grounds Tuesday, but was held up and scheduled to leave today.

Probe Finds Range; Fires It Back To MPs

OTTAWA (CP) — The Commons defence committee found the range Tuesday night and shot the armed forces unification bill back to the Commons.

But it took 55 meetings since Feb. 7, 23 major witnesses and Tuesday, 55 formal votes before the 65-clause bill cleared its highest hurdle so far.

It still has a long way to go, however.

It must receive clause-by-clause study and third and final reading in the Commons, go to the Senate, receive royal assent and then be proclaimed law.

Defence Minister Hellyer told the committee it will require at least four months after parliamentary passage to prepare regulations based on the bill.

Before the legislation can be proclaimed law, thus abolishing the navy, army and air force.

Gordon Churchill, former Conservative defence minister, said the bill "might" get through in May or June if the government accepted amendments the Conservatives will propose in the Commons.

Ferry Nugent (PC—Edmonton) said he will fight the bill in the Commons "step by step, thoroughly and exhaustively."

Michael Forrestall (PC—Halifax) said he will propose amendments in the Commons which will be tougher than two the Conservatives unsuccessfully tried to get through the committee Tuesday.

The committee approved the bill as a whole by a vote of 14 to 8 with Harold Winch (NDP—Vancouver East) and Andrew Brewin (NDP—Toronto Greenwood) joining 12 Liberals in favor. Eight Conservatives were opposed.

There were 54 other votes on clauses which referred even indirectly to creation of a single force and abolition of the three services or vice versa. The Conservatives forced votes on even the bill's title and preamble and on a motion to have it reprinted with its government-sponsored amendments, all minor ones.

The Conservatives put up their stiffest fight against clauses dealing with the compulsory transfer of soldiers, sailors and airmen to the new force.

They called this conscription and Marcel Lambert (PC—Edmonton West) said: "It's a hell of a way to run a ship."

The general manager of West Kelowna Power and Light Co. in Trail today gave assurance that a strike by company employees would have little effect on the public served by the company's power.

West Kelowna serves Kelowna with the sale of power to the city electrical department.

A. A. Lambert told the Daily Courier "we will run it ourselves" if the company's more than 200 employees decide to strike in voting which began today.

He said the only possible effect on consumers would be a major breakdown in the system. "Unless this happens, consumers won't be affected," he said.

Local 999 of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers announced their decision to hold a government-supervised strike vote Tuesday, after turning down recommendations contained in a conciliation board report.

Voting today included 11 union employees working in the Kelowna area. Results of the overall voting throughout the interior were expected to be announced in one week.

Another holiday

The conciliation board recommendations, accepted by the power company, rejected a union proposal to reduce the hours of work from 40 to 37½ a week.

STRICKEN TANKER'S SAGA

Operation Soapsuds Goes On As Oil Slick Heads To France

LAND'S END, England (AP) — The mammoth oil slick from the crippled super-tanker Torrey Canyon shifted today toward the southeast, and France, moving away from the threatened beaches of Cornwall, the British coast guard reported.

A spokesman at the St. Just station in Cornwall said: "She is blowing well away from the coast in a direction south-southeast. That is out to sea and possibly toward the coast of Brittany. The spraying operations by the ships are having a good effect and I do not think any of the slick should reach France. At the moment there is no danger to the beaches of Cornwall."

The pear-shaped slick covers 700 square miles of ocean. It had been feared that it would wash a shore and ruin the beaches of southern England.

The government's $1,500,000 Operation Soapsuds continued in high gear as a flotilla of more than 25 trawlers sprayed detergents to contain the slick and force the oil toward the ocean bed.

The 61,263-ton tanker is stuck on the Seven Stones reef. Salvage operations on the $15,000,000 tanker were reorganized after Tuesday's violent explosion which blew open the engine room and killed the captain of a Dutch salvage tug.

The defence ministry expressed anxiety over the renewed salvage operations. With fumes probably filling the tanker from some 80,000 tons of oil still in its holds, a ministry spokesman said, "it needs only a spark to set the whole lot off."

The explosions Tuesday came as 18 salvage men pumped compressed air below decks in an attempt to make the tanker buoyant enough to lift her off the reef on a high tide.

WEATHER FORECAST

Below normal temperatures are in store for most of Canada from mid-March to mid-April, according to the 30-day outlook of the United States Weather Bureau. Precipitation is expected to be above normal in the most populated areas. Figures are in inches of rain — one inch of snow equals 10 of snow. The outlook is not specific and changes may occur. — (CP Newsmap)

Bank Bill Finally Clears Hurdles In Commons

OTTAWA (CP)—The government's bill making big changes in the operations of chartered banks made it through the Commons early today.

Final passage of the lengthy bill came after opposition MPs kept the government on the griddle for five days—including overtime sittings past midnight Monday and Tuesday—roasting it for just about every aspect of its monetary policies.

Great Northern Would Aid B.C.'s Plan For Superport

VICTORIA (CP)—The Great Northern Railway said in a letter to the British Columbia government Tuesday it would participate in proposed development of a bulk-loading superport at Roberts Bank, south of Vancouver.

In a letter to Attorney-General Bonner, executive vice-president R. W. Downing of the American railway, which has a spur line to Vancouver from Seattle, outlined Great Northern's proposal to ship B.C. coal to tide-water via the United States.

The letter said Great Northern, which has offered to ship the coal for $4 per ton—60 cents a ton less than that asked by the Canadian Pacific Railway—would rail the coal to facilities at Roberts Bank.

The provincial government has introduced legislation setting up a provincial harbours board with power to borrow up to $25,000,000 to build a superport at Roberts Bank. The legislation has been given third reading.

Crows Nest Industries Ltd. now is negotiating a contract to sell large quantities of coal to Japan, but the company has said the CPR wants too much in freight rates to get the coal to tidewater.

The Great Northern letter said: "We understand the (B.C.) government will construct a railroad as part of the project from a connection with Great Northern near Colebrook, B.C. The rate quoted to the coal company is on the basis that the unit train will operate to the unloading site at Roberts Bank."

Milk War Continues

CHICAGO (AP)—The U.S. National Farmers Organization's milk-holding and dumping campaign moved into the seventh day today, but a survey showed no clear evidence of rising prices or shortages.

However, an Associated Press survey did reflect some disagreement over how much milk has been destroyed while the NFO tries to boost milk prices to dairy farmers by two cents a quart. The price now generally is 10 cents. In any case, a check showed the holding and dumping action amounted to hundreds of thousands of gallons.

The NFO claimed a victory in Omaha when retail prices rose two cents a quart. And milk prices jumped one cent a quart in Austin, Minn.

But retail prices dropped two cents a quart in Louisville. And in Logansport, Ind., a supermarket group anticipating a shortage overstocked its milk cases. As a result, the chain was forced to sell half-gallons at the bargain rate of three for $1. The usual price is 40 to 42 cents.

Ottawa May Lay Down Rules For March Of Automation

OTTAWA (CP)—A possible first step towards federal legislation that could lay down rules for industry's move into automation was hinted at by Manpower Minister Marchand Tuesday night.

He told a national labor-management conference dinner it appears essential that employers give their workers at least three months warning of technological changes that could adversely affect their jobs.

Mr. Marchand suggested there may be a need for new procedures under which unions would be able to protest when job adjustment plans advanced by management are unacceptable to workers.

"... I would prefer to consider a procedure whereby, if the manpower adjustments decided on are unacceptable to workers, there would be what would amount to a right of appeal to an arbitrator."

Mr. Marchand said this approach differs somewhat from the one proposed 15 months ago by Mr. Justice Samuel Freedman of Winnipeg after his federal inquiry into a CNR crew run-through controversy.

He said the Freedman plans could cause a delay in the introduction of a new work method. But it was important to accept technological changes quickly for the good of the economy. The aim should be to make changes as quickly as possible without injuring the position of workers involved.

The first flowers of spring always seem to stir something special in young hearts and the honor is usually reserved for the early blooming wild flowers such as the crocus, which waxes its way from the ground during the first warmth. Admiring the simple beauty of the flowers are spring companions Lynn Des-

First Spring Weekend Tourist Action Booms

The city is ready for both an onslaught and an exodus of visitors during the holiday weekend.

Visitor and Convention coordinator, W. J. Stevenson reports some hotels and motels are filled but plenty of bookings are still available in others.

"There is plenty of room in Kelowna for all Easter visitors expected," he said. A few years ago accommodation people were amazed by the number of visitors who came here during the holiday weekend, most of them family groups.

There is transportation in and out of the city by aircraft, bus and rail, through bus connections, although some space is limited.

Canadian Pacific Airlines predicts an increase of 20 per cent from last year in both incoming and outgoing traffic figures.

The 4:45 p.m. flights to Vancouver for Thursday and Friday are solidly booked and the waiting lists have been closed. Each aircraft has an 82-seat capacity.

The 8:45 p.m. flights both days have plenty of seats available. The Kelowna-Calgary flights Thursday and Friday are also solidly booked.

EXTRA FLIGHT
An extra flight will leave Vancouver at 9 p.m. Thursday, arriving in Kelowna via Penticton, at 10:45 p.m. and returning at 11:05 p.m.

In addition to normal flights two chartered aircraft will arrive in Kelowna Saturday bringing athletes to a track and field event.

The Canadian National Railways were solidly booked Monday and Tuesday, with no prospect of any let up during the weekend. In fact, a spokesman said "things will get heavier right through the summer with Expo '67 on."

Banks in the city will close at 3 p.m. Thursday but will reopen from 4:30 to 6 p.m. the same day. They will be closed all day Friday and Saturday and open Monday as usual.

If you are one of the stay-at-homes and want to send your greetings out of town by mail, both the CN and CP offices will be open Friday from 9 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. and from 5 p.m. to 6 p.m. Saturday the regular hours will be observed, 8 a.m. to 11 p.m. Sunday the hours will be the same as Friday and Monday will be normal.

BUSY SPOT
One of the busiest spots in town will be the bus depot. No advance bookings are made so all officials can say is that no one is ever left behind. Extra buses will be called as required. Normally the city has two buses east to Calgary, two north and three to Vancouver, daily.

There will be no mail delivery service Friday and Saturday. Emergency calls can be directed to the fire hall, where stand-by crews will be contacted.

The provincial government building will be closed Friday to Monday, inclusive, opening Tuesday morning as usual.

Teachers and students will have the longest holiday of all. Elementary and secondary schools close Thursday after regular classes and re-open April 3 at 9 a.m. The school board office at 599 Harvey Ave. will be closed Friday to Monday inclusive.

The government liquor store in Kelowna will stay open Thursday to 4 p.m. but will be closed all day Friday. Saturday the normal hours of 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. will be observed. Monday the store will be closed all day.

Regular hours will be resumed Tuesday.

The special Easter church services will be announced in the Daily Courier this week.

40 Principals Attend Parlay

A recent workshop designed to evaluate administration within the school and study problems encountered by school officials was attended by more than 40 Okanagan principals and vice-principals in Vernon.

Several officials, including principal L. P. Dedinsky of the Kelowna Secondary School were included in those participating in the workshop, sponsored by the Okanagan Principals and Vice-Principals Association.

The workshop, the second held in the Okanagan this year, was conducted by Dr. Lorne Downey and his associates of the department of educational administration at the University of British Columbia.

Participants faced a simulated problem within a school and were asked to take the required steps to solve it. They later evaluated the problem and its solution in group discussions.

Public Function Liquor Permit Rules Enforced

The issuing of liquor permits for public functions must cease at once, says Staff Sgt. G. A. Phillips, head of the Kelowna detachment of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police.

He has received instructions from RCMP headquarters for the division in Kamloops.

The staff-sergeant says many people do not understand the proper use of a banquet permit which, primarily, is issued to allow the consumption of liquor in places where it is normally unlawful. They are not issued for a public function.

When members of some specific group are holding a function, not open to the general public, a banquet permit may be issued to permit the consumption of liquor in a place that is not a licensed premises.

Such groups would include service clubs holding social events, at annual meetings, Remembrance Day events, Christmas parties, conventions, chambers of commerce general meetings and wedding or anniversary parties. Some would be one-a-year occasions, others not more often than possibly once a month, the staff-sergeant said.

"Some people go to a great deal of trouble to arrange a dance or ball or other similar function and learn at the last minute they cannot obtain a permit to serve liquor," he said. "Banquet permits may be issued only for 'special' occasions, where liquor is served only to bona fide guests."

"Permits may not be issued for public functions such as dances where the public is invited or admitted or tickets sold indiscriminately. When a permit is issued, there must be no profit made from the liquor consumed."

"There are many licensed premises in the area where these functions may be held without a banquet permit. These hotels, motels and restaurants which have permits have gone to considerable expense to conform to rigid liquor regulations. These facilities are available to those who wish to put on a function where alcoholic beverages are going to be consumed."

BCFGA Seeks Gov't Change Tuesday Now Final Date

At the request of the executive of the B.C. Fruit Growers' Association the provincial minister of agriculture, has announced the crop insurance program has been re-opened for late applicants for a short period.

This will allow growers who did not apply for coverage prior to the Jan. 31 deadline to submit applications now, Frank Richter said.

The re-opening has been prompted by receipt of a substantial number of applications and enquiries since Jan. 31.

Any grower who has not applied for crop insurance coverage may now apply by writing to Fruit Growers' Mutual Insurance Company, 1441 Ellis St. Kelowna, and enclosing a $50 deposit. Any such letter of application must be postmarked not later than midnight, Tuesday, April 25.

The BCFG is mailing a special bulletin outlining details to all growers.

The free fruit crop insurance program, which was announced in December, 1966, is now in

FRANK RICHTER . . . program re-opened operation. A considerable number of growers have already taken out tree and crop insurance, and coverage written already exceeds $1,000,000.

Processing of original applications is proceeding as quickly as possible. Any grower who applied before Jan. 31 and has not yet been contacted is assured his application will receive consideration shortly.

Okanagan Festival Of Arts Could Be Major Attraction

A Festival of the Arts for Kelowna and the Okanagan in 1968 or 1969, came a step closer to reality when a Vancouver man met with a city group for preliminary discussions.

Victor White, manager of the Vancouver Symphony Orchestra, around which the festival is to centre, met with members of the Kelowna and District Arts Council at a luncheon meeting Tuesday.

The arts council endorsed the idea of an arts festival and since long-range planning is required, a tentative date was set for a year, maybe two years from now.

The event would be staged in the summer and would include all forms of art, performances and exhibits, including music, drama, concerts, paintings, art and ceramic exhibits.

Mr. White said the festival was not meant to conflict with any existing festival or club activity, rather he would like to see a co-operation between all man met with a city group for preliminary discussions.

There is no other setting in western Canada to compete with what you have here in Kelowna," Mr. White said Tuesday. He was high in his praise for the possibilities of the setting for a festival of the arts in Okanagan Stadium in the City Park, where he visualized a seated audience and one in boats on the water nearby.

He said although Kelowna would be the headquarters for any festival events, concerts would also be held in Vernon and Penticton.

To be successful, financial assistance must be sought from three government levels, Mr. White said—municipal and provincial, also federal through the Canada Council.

Service Station Theft Case Lands Rutland Youth In Jail

A 20-year-old Rutland youth was remanded in custody in magistrate's court today after pleading guilty to a charge of theft of $120 from a cash register at the Mohawk Service Station, Harvey Avenue.

Gary Curtis, Sexsmith Road, was charged with theft over $50 and was remanded to March 30 for sentencing. The prosecutor said on Saturday the accused entered the service station to buy cigarettes. The office was unattended. Police were called and given a description of a vehicle but Curtis denied the theft, the prosecutor said. Sunday he went to the manager and admitted taking the money, returned part of it then and the remainder later.

Hamilton George Freeman, Westbank, pleaded not guilty to the theft of an auto, the property of P. Shelby Ltd., on March 13. The case was remanded to April 3. He asked permission to change his guilty plea to not guilty on a previous charge of taking an auto without the owner's consent. The case was remanded to March 30.

Guy Wilson Meek, 55, appeared for decision on an impaired driving charge. He was found guilty and fined $100 and prohibited from driving for six months.

In passing sentence, Magistrate White said testimony at the trial showed Meek had a tooth extracted the day before, that he had some rum during the day, that the car had a faulty tire and that tests for impaired driving could not be done properly because of arthritis. He said the charges included impairment from drugs or liquor or a combination of both, that police testified the driver could not confine the vehicle to one side of the road and if the tire was in such poor condition, why did the accused pass service stations? He said there was no evidence of arthritis during the trial.

Lawyer Homer Robinson asked for consideration for his client who was on welfare and not a robust man.

Anti-Gouging Laws Will Protect Expo Visitors

There have been many stories during the past few months of how the accommodation people in Montreal were gouging the prospective visitors to Expo. The gouging to the extent generally feared will not take place apparently; thanks to legislation by the Quebec government.

Legislation recently passed means in essence that no establishment will be allowed to charge more than its 1965 and 1966 rates, plus between five and 15 per cent to cover the normal increase in prices.

Behind this stands a law with teeth in it. Bills 19 and 20, passed last month by the Quebec Legislature, impose penalties rising from $200 or one month imprisonment for first offenders to $3,000 or two months for repeat offenders.

It will be easy for Expo-goers who think they are being gouged to take recourse to the law. A notice is required to be posted in each room let, advising guests the price of the room and urging them to report any overcharging to what amounts to a court which sits 24 hours a day. For quick action the card even gives the number of the telephone to call.

The regulations are designed to protect the six million people who will seek paid accommodation to see Expo. A like number are expected to stay with friends or relatives.

Some people have expressed themselves as appalled at Montreal hotel prices during Expo. The main trouble is that they moved too late to get accommodation. Even for September, only the most expensive rooms are still available. For June, July and August there are no hotel rooms. But there are 50,000 rooms in private homes, averaging $6 a night. And there are apartments at government-controlled rates ranging from $15 to $42 a day, depending on the number of persons occupying them. And there is plenty of accommodation out of town but within easy commuting distance.

It is admitted that some establishments have tried to make a too-fast killing. Some motels and second-rate hotels were asking Queen Elizabeth prices. But now they know just what they will be permitted to charge and even booking they have made earlier at raised rates will be null and void.

Logexpo, the organization in charge of lodging, will have the use of computer complex which will be able to locate accommodation in seconds. Travellers arriving by car without accommodation will find Logexpo kiosks at the Ontario and U.S. borders, connected to the computer and will be able to learn within seconds whether and where they can find a place to stay.

Experience alone can demonstrate just how well the new anti-gouging laws will work. However it does seem as though Expo and the Quebec government have taken what steps they can to protect the Expo visitor: Inspected and approved accommodations at approved prices.

Centennial Books

This being Centennial Year, Canada's book publishers are vying with each other in the pursuit of Canadiana. Novelists who otherwise would never be published are being published, and non-fiction efforts, featuring Canadiana, obscure or overdone or in between, are literally a dime a dozen. (And you should see some of the plays that are being produced!)

It would be no exaggeration to say that five times as many "Canadian" books are being published this year than ever before, and that includes the flush days when native son and daughter authors like Morley Callaghan, Mazo de la Roche, Merrill Dennison, Stephen Leacock, Charles G. D. Roberts, E. J. Pratt, Thomas Raddall, Hugh MacLennan and Thomas

B. Costain were big names, all at the same time, here and abroad.

Quality, naturally, does not always count in centennial year. Publishers asked for, nay demanded, books on every conceivable subject for 1967, and they got them. That's why every major company has new histories, new photographic essays, and new fiction; enough to fill every barn A. Y. Jackson ever painted.

The surprising thing is that some of the results are impressive. A new history of Canadian art, for instance, is outstanding. If one or two more prizes like it are forthcoming during the remaining ten months of the year, the publishing world's glutony will have been not entirely an exercise in self-indulgence.

Love Those Araucanas

(Hamilton Spectator)

We all know by now that the Araucana—one of Ontario's rarest hens—lays blue eggs. Proves it's a blue-blooded bird.

According to a leading breeder of the Araucanas, when a rooster member of the family is bred with a chicken that lays brown eggs, the children present their owner with green and pink eggs as well as the blue ones.

We asked friend number one if he'd crack a blue egg and then fry and eat its contents. "Not on your life," he practically shouted.

Friend number two reacted even more positively. "If I saw a chicken lay a blue or pink egg, I'd call a vet."

Another person, a woman, said if any of her chickens laid blue or green eggs, she'd lay a charge against the entire Araucana family. She was kidding, or was she?

Everyone we asked said, in effect, that they wouldn't be caught dead eating the contents of any egg that wasn't colored brown or white. So where does that leave our friends the robins?

There's nothing more to say (and, believe us, we hate to) except that most folk are real chicken when it comes to new developments on the poultry front.

By DR. JOSEPH G. MOLNER

Dear Dr. Molner:

I know that a close relative is using barbiturates excessively, and I mean that. Excessively.

1—Can such a person break himself of the habit?

2—If not, can a physician help him?

3—Must this person be committed to a mental hospital?

4—Will this person later go back to using barbiturates if faced with the same problems?

—M.W.

I wish you had told me how you know this person is using the drug to excess. The barbiturates can be so extremely useful when used according to instructions that I don't want to frighten people away from using them with confidence when prescribed for a real need.

It is, however, true that excessive use can be habituating. A psychological dependence develops, as distinguished from addiction, or a physical need.

When a person develops the habit strongly, there is little chance of his breaking the habit by himself. He can, however, be gradually weaned from the drug with a physician's help. It usually requires some form of sedative or tranquilizer. Abruptly stopping barbiturates, when the habit has become strongly fixed, can in itself be harmful.

Keep in mind however, that continued use is dangerous, too. If it reaches the point of actual barbiturate poisoning, hospitalization may be necessary.

A habitual user can have trouble seeing and speaking clearly, he is hazy in his thinking and unsteady in physical actions, may hurt himself in an accident, may have periods when he cannot remember what he has been doing. If he gets to this stage, he certainly should be placed under medical care, because he is in real peril.

There is no reason for putting such a person in a mental hospital, however, unless some other factor dictates it. If there is a severe emotional disorder (which perhaps may have led to the dependence on barbiturates to start with), or there is any suicidal tendency, then of course he must be placed in a hospital which is prepared to guard against the risks.

It is possible that a person, once cured of his barbiturate habit, may return to it, if he was using the drug to run away from his problems, and the same problems still obsess him. But, and this is important, remember that there are strict federal regulations governing sale and distribution of barbiturates. Enough people have abused the drugs to make stringent control necessary.

Thus comes the question: Where is your relative getting barbiturates in such quantities? If he has some black market supply, the authorities should be notified. If he is deceiving a number of physicians, getting prescriptions from each, they should be informed. And the patient needs to be watched, to see that he does not do the same thing again. The sure way of preventing renewed dependence on the drug is to prevent him from getting it.

Dear Dr. Molner: I had a blood test for uric acid. The doctor expected it to be high. Instead it was quite low, below normal. Is this serious?—MRS. H.P.

Blood uric acid varies from 2 to 4 mg. per cent (that is, milligrams per 100 cubic centimeters) depending on the laboratory standards in use. A reading above 7 mg. is considered high. A reading below normal is not significant.

Dear Dr. Molner: Will shaving with a blade cause a heavier beard than electric shaving? If so why?—L.C.

No, because the heaviness of the beard is governed by its growth at the root. The whiskers are not changed in texture by the method of cutting them.

LETTER TO EDITOR

SEEDS COSTLY TOO

Sir: I understand that some organizations boycott some food stores on account of the high food prices.

How about the high cost of garden seeds? A year ago one could purchase a packet of seeds (mostly pictures) for 15 cents, now the price is 25 cents, a rise of 66 per cent.

It costs no more now to plant a carrot, parsley, beet, etc., to get a harvest of seeds in the fall than it did 30 years ago when you could purchase from three cents to five cents for a packet of seed.

I like to see gardens with beautiful flowers and vegetables but not from seeds bought at a hold-up price.

Yours truly,
H. HUDSON,

CANADA'S STORY

Pontiac Caused Loss Of Colonies

By BOB BOWMAN

An Indian chief, Pontiac, was partly responsible for Britain losing the North American colonies now known as the U.S.A. Pontiac's headquarters were near present-day Windsor, Ont., and he resented Britain taking over Canada from France. He vowed to wipe the British off the face of the earth. It was a big boast, but Pontiac did cause a great deal of trouble. During 1763, more than 2,000 British men, women and children were killed along the frontier. Pontiac kept Detroit under siege for more than a year, and massacred the garrison at Michilimackinac.

The result was that Britain decided to send an army to North America to protect its citizens, but decreed that the colonists must pay the cost. The Stamp Act was passed by parliament and given Royal Assent on March 22, 1765. It was bitterly resented by all the British colonies in what are now the U.S.A. and Canada because they were already paying taxes imposed by their own legislatures. They had never imagined that they would have to pay taxes to Britain.

Every newspaper, advertisement and pamphlet had to carry a stamp. Holders of public offices had to pay six pounds for stamps attached to their commissions. Lawyers had to pay two pounds before they could practice. Bills of lading, insurance policies, and even students' degrees were shuttily taxed.

The Stamp Act was repealed almost exactly a year later, not only because of the resentment it caused, but because it did not raise enough revenue to pay for the cost of collection. Yet the seeds of resentment had been sown and led eventually to the American Revolutionary War.

OTHER EVENTS ON MARCH 22:

- 1700 Bienville LeMoyne explored Red River (U.S.A.) and later became Governor of Louisiana.
- 1723 Reverend George Henry, a Presbyterian, began preaching in Quebec in a room provided by the Jesuit College.
- 1778 Captain Cook named Cape Flattery but missed Strait of Juan de Fuca.
- 1891 Baldwin, Blake, and Mackenzie were hanged in effigy in Toronto.
- 1885 Sir John A. Macdonald mobilized troops all over Canada to combat Riel rebellion on prairies.
- 1922 Coal miners went on strike in Alberta and British Columbia until August 24.
- 1929 Canadian schooner "I'm Alone" was sunk by U.S. Coast Guard as a rum-runner.

NEWS ANALYSIS

Brazil Spurs Democratic Way

By PHILIP DEANE,
Foreign Affairs Analyst

Last week, Brazil inaugurated a new president and a new constitution which does not even pretend to be democratic. Henceforth freedom of the press disappears, opposition parties have to face the active hostility of the state and the armed forces are recognized as the big brother who knows best. The new president, of course, is a military man, Marshal Costa e Silva. In short, the world's fifth largest country, covering one-half of South America, is now a military dictatorship. One wonders why.

Brazil has been richly endowed by nature, with great hydroelectric potential, colossal forests, a multiplicity of minerals including one-third of the earth's iron ore reserves. The soil is spectacularly fertile and only five per cent of the arable land is cultivated; in the very size of their land, the people of Brazil have the promise of a good life—a good life in harmony even, because they have all but eliminated tension among their various races.

Yet Brazil has the highest infant mortality in this hemisphere, the highest possibly in the world, a life expectancy of 43 for its citizens, the highest per capita foreign debt of any country, practically no roads and such an inequitable distribution of wealth that half the arable land is owned by 1.6 per cent of the population, this is a nation that is primarily agricultural; next to a starving family scratching a living off two acres, a man owns a superbly fertile farm covering five thousand square miles.

CORRUPTION

Such glaring inequalities are remnants of the colonial, feudal past, as is the corruption which so pervades the land that a Brazilian state governor is apologetically quoted as saying that he steals but gets things done. One recent president made enough out of his office to buy nearly five hundred thousand acres of choice land.

The ruling classes have been notoriously slack in reforming themselves and so in recent years, agitation from below, among the destitute and desperate, has grown apace. The poor threw up leaders who quoted Castro. The ruling class to pacify the city poor, at least, granted wage increases totally unrelated to productivity. Corruption wasted the capital investments that could increase this productivity, prices rose 84 per cent in one year, inflation ate the country's substance, the poor grew poorer and more restless.

The army stepped in with the concurrence of the badly frightened ruling class politicians who preferred losing their freedom to losing their wealth. The army generals conscientiously fought inflation, brooking no opposition; brooking no opposition has been their attitude in all fields—generals know no other way. But they are not righting injustice; they are merely containing the pressure of protest and this often ends in an explosion.

Many Waiting For New Corneas

EDMUNDSTON, N.B. (CP)—About 1,500 Canadians with failing vision must wait for corneal transplant operations because there are not enough donors to the national eye bank.

So, as its centennial project, the Edmundston branch of the Canadian National Institute for the Blind decided to seek 100 pledges. The number of those pledging eyes for use after their death has exceeded 250. This lengthened the Maritime provinces register of donors in Halifax to some 3,500 names.

The eye retina containing the cornea—a transparent membrane covering the eye surface—is removed at death, frequently from stillborn infants. Special containers are used to transport them to the eye bank centre in Toronto, where corneas can be kept for longer periods. From Toronto, the material is distributed to centres where patients await transplants. In the Maritimes, the operation can be done at Antigonish, N.S., Halifax, Moncton and Saint John.

The first group to sign pledges here were 11 members of the Royal Canadian Legion's Edmundston branch. Following the example of publisher Jean-Louis Boucher, the staff of the weekly newspaper Le Madawaska and some of their wives signed 34 pledges. The city police department responded with 28 pledges. Employees of radio station CJEM signed 17. Thirty-two pledged cards were requested for telephone company workers here.

Plans For Blood Donor Clinic Made At Winfield Meeting

WINFIELD — President Mrs. G. P. Johnson welcomed a visitor, Mrs. A. J. Gregory, to the regular monthly meeting of the hospital auxiliary which was held at the home of Mrs. Joan Hicks with 10 members present.

Arrangements were made for the annual Red Cross blood donor clinic which will be held on April 21 in the memorial hall.

The memorial hall was also reserved for June 1 when the auxiliary will hold its hospital fair, it is planned to be held indoors as the weatherman was of the opinion that the fair had to be moved indoors at the last minute.

Bruce Duggan was the lucky person to be awarded the TV tables and trolley and Shig Tahara received the sandwich grill.

Peachland Legion Auxiliary Celebrates Fortieth Birthday

PEACHLAND — The 40th anniversary of the Royal Canadian Legion Branch 69 and the Ladies' Auxiliary was celebrated March 17 with a banquet and social for the members and wives. Charter members were guests on this occasion with J. G. Sanderson as master of ceremonies.

President J. R. Davies read out the names on the charter roll and all named answered the roll. A toast was then proposed to these charter members to which W. B. Sanderson replied. Speaking of early struggles to raise the money to build the first hall and of the work and comradeship that went into making this Legion Branch what it is today.

Answering the roll call for the branch were: W. B. Sanderson, H. Miller, W. Renfrew, A. J. Chidley and Alf Ruffe. Ladies' Auxiliary president, Mrs. E. Chisholm next called the roll of L.A. charter members, answering their names were: Mrs. F. Topham Sr., Mrs. E. Young, Miss M. Coldham and Mrs. K. Atkins. A toast was proposed to the ladies to which Mrs. Topham answered for the L.A. charter members.

J. G. Sanderson then called on Steve Dunston, deputy zone commander to say a few words. Mr. Dunston spoke on the aims of the Legion and comradeship and service which is the goal and thanked the group for inviting him on this occasion.

Mrs. E. Bonthaux the Summerland district representative then spoke on L.A. work and thanked the branch for inviting her to be present on "this happy occasion." The large birthday cake was then cut by Mrs. K. Atkins, twice past president of the L.A.

After the banquet, the deputy zone commander called the group to order and the installation of new member John Simmons took place. After which Mr. Dunston installed the branch 69 president and executive for 1967. The chair was then turned over to district representative Mrs. E. Bonthaux who installed the president and L.A. executive for 1967. Newly installed president J. R. Davies then read the closing ceremonies and with the singing of The Queen, this part of the evening ended.

A dance and social evening followed.

'No Wrongdoing Discovered' Manning Reports To House

EDMONTON (CP)—A "flabbergasted" opposition member sat quietly in his seat in the Alberta legislature Tuesday and listened while Premier E. C. Manning said there is no evidence of wrongdoing in documents tabled last month.

Garth Turcott (NDP — Pincher Creek-Crowsnest), who tabled the documents Feb. 15, said they indicated improper conduct by two government members.

He questioned the propriety of some land dealings by A. J. Hooke, municipal affairs minister, and said E. W. Hinman, former provincial treasurer, may have used the influence of his cabinet position to further his own ends.

Mr. Manning said that after members have had a chance to study statements and documents tabled Tuesday by Mr. Hooke and Mr. Hinman, "an appropriate motion can be brought before the house to permit a final disposition of this matter."

Mr. Turcott said outside the house he was "flabbergasted" at the approach taken by the government. He said he had expected the government to bring in a recommendation "instead of throwing the whole thing back in the assembly's lap."

When he tabled his documents, Mr. Turcott asked for an investigation into three matters:

—The question of the propriety of Mr. Hooke dealing with the city of Edmonton in certain land transactions;

—What he termed contradictions between some of the documents;

—The question of whether the minister received a profit after contracting with the city that he would not arrange for a profit.

Reading from a prepared statement, Mr. Manning said: "While municipal legislation prohibits aldermen entering into land transactions with their own councils, it does not prohibit them transacting business with the provincial government."

"In like manner, our Legislative Assembly Act prohibits members of the provincial government having transactions with the government of which they are members but does not prohibit them, as individuals, engaging in normal business transactions with other levels of government."

Mr. Manning said that "whether any question of propriety is involved becomes a matter of individual opinion rather than fact" and charged that Mr. Turcott had tabled only such material as served to cast reflections on a minister and former minister.

Rutland Scouts Hold Camp

RUTLAND—The Rutland Boy Scout troop, under the leadership of Scoutmaster Howard Johnson and Assistant Scoutmaster Jack Dendy, camped overnight Saturday and Sunday on the Walburn Flats, in the Mission Creek canyon, below the Belgo. Some good outdoor training was gained in cooking, campcraft, etc. There were 19 in camp all told.

The site has been a popular one with the Rutland troop for a good many years. The boys were somewhat dismayed, however, to find most of the poplar trees along the creek and on the low ground below the campsite had been felled by a busy band of beavers this past winter. All the foliage, small branches and bark had been eaten from the top parts of the trees.

VALLEY SOCIAL ROUNDUP

PEACHLAND

A tea and presentation was held recently at the home of Mrs. Harold Thwaite on Princeton Avenue. It was given in honor of Mrs. G. Smith in appreciation from her art students prior to her departure for a holiday in England. Attending were Mrs. J. T. Garraway, Mrs. A. Colter, Mrs. R. Kraft, Mrs. W. Robinson, Mrs. A. Webber, Mrs. L. McCall, Mrs. W. Walker, Mrs. J. Seltnerich, Mrs. A. Coldham and Mrs. L. Fleming.

Representing the Royal Canadian Legion Br. 69 and L.A. at the annual South Okanagan and Similkameen Zone meeting at Osoyoos Sunday, were Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Davies and Mr. and Mrs. E. Chisholm.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Kopp this week are Mrs. W. Nelson, Brad and Roselle from Kirkland, Wash.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bradley this weekend were their daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. David Lohman and two children from Mount Vernon, Wash. The trip was made to be on hand at the 86th birthday of Mrs. Lohman's grandmother, Mrs. R.

Bradley, who celebrated her birthday Sunday.

The Peachland Community Choir, augmented with some ladies' voices, will have one hour's program of Easter music, under the direction of Mrs. R. D. Mitchell on Sunday, April 2 at 7:30 p.m. in the United Church in Peachland.

One Peachland resident celebrated St. Patrick's Day in an unique way. Carl Mack though not Irish turned up Friday with his centennial beard dyed green.

After standing idle for several years the old Peachland packinghouse is once more the hive of activity. A local businessman Doug Finnan and his partner Hugh Burton of Penticton have started a new business making roof trusses. This now will be called Tru-truss Fabricators Limited. Expecting to start in a small way and growing with the community they have aroused great interest in all parts of the Valley.

Members attending the Legion party Friday night acknowledged the wedding anniversary of two good Legion members, Mr. and Mrs. A. Coldham, of Trepanier who celebrated their twentieth anniversary March 17.

The cold facts about cooked pudding.

Or, how to get that real home-cooked flavour your kids will love, without all the fuss and bother of cooking.

Used to be when you wanted real, honest-to-goodness home-cooked flavour in a pudding, that's what you had to do. Cook it.

Because cooking made it better. Cooking made it smoother, creamier. And it brought out all its flavour. The only thing was, cooking was such a lot of bother. You had to get a pot and mix the stuff in and then stir it and stir it and watch it till it boiled. Oops. Careful. And then cool it. And when you were through you had a real cooked pudding alright but more often than not you had a real mess too. Guck.

So what this country needed was a pudding that tasted just like the cooked kind, without the cooking.

Robin Hood cooked one up. The new Robin Hood Parfait Pudding. The Unique One.

With the new Robin Hood Parfait Pudding all you do is add milk, chill, and serve. There's nothing to it. Takes about 15 minutes in all. And it really does taste like the kind you slave over. How do we know? We tried it on the experts. Lots of them. 7, 8 and 9 year olds. The toughest critics we could find. And they agreed. They said it does taste just like the kind their moms cook for them. The kind where they couldn't wait to lick the pot.

The new Robin Hood Parfait (they said) had the same texture too. It was thick and creamy just like cooked. Smooth, with no lumps. Not watery either. Just good wholesome old-fashioned pudding, a new-fashioned way. They loved all its five delicious flavours too. Chocolate, Butterscotch, Vanilla, Lemon, and Coconut Cream.

And that's why Robin Hood Parfait is The Unique One. Because there just aren't any other puddings that can match it for real cooked flavour. And in this day and age of Instant, and artificial flavours and synthetics, that is unique.

What's more, Robin Hood Parfait gives you more for your money. It makes up into six big servings. Not just four like the others. (And that's pretty unique too.)

So why not give new Robin Hood Parfait pudding a try tomorrow. Find out for yourself why we call it The Unique One.

And years from now, when your kids have grown up and gone they'll always remember Robin Hood chill and serve Parfait as the good home-cooked pudding mother used to make. That's a fact.

MR. AND MRS. ANDREW FALKOWSKY

Family Gathers To Honor Parents' Diamond Wedding

The Diamond Anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Falkowsky, both in their 80th year of life, was celebrated recently at the home of the honored couple. The festivities included a turkey dinner held in the Chandelery Room of the Capri Hotel, Kelowna, where 300 guests were present. Rev. Babel of Grace Baptist Church, 200 people gathered at the Grace Baptist Church in Kelowna, where a program was rendered in their honor. Rev. Babel again spoke words of grace through the promises of God, which have kept the Falkowskys through joys and sorrows during the past 60 years, and Rev. Nikol was the guest speaker of the evening. Delicious refreshments were served by the ladies of the church. The flowered family table was enhanced by a one-tier, Bible shaped wedding cake presented by their children. The Lord is my Shepherd. Mr. and Mrs. Falkowsky have been members of this church for the past 23 years. Mr. Falkowsky served both as usher and trustee in the church, and is still very active in visiting the sick and lonely. A token of love was shown from the church by presenting them with a pole lamp and a bouquet of carnations. Born in Russia, the couple were married on Feb. 25, 1907 in the same country. After World War I they moved to Germany, and in 1926 they emigrated to Saskatchewan where they farmed around the Yorkton area. For the past 24 years they have been in retirement in Kelowna. Born to the Falkowskys were two sons, John of Vancouver, B.C.; Gerhardt of Regina, Sask. and two daughters, Mrs. Mary Dreger of Saskatoon, Sask. and Mrs. Helen Steffens of Vernon, B.C., eight grandchildren and five great grandchildren. Relatives attending the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Ken Dreger and daughter of Ebenzer, Sask., Mr. and Mrs. Herman Ohlmann of Shamrock, Sask., Mrs. Emalia Falkowsky of Vancouver, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Falkowsky and son Arthur of Kelowna and Mrs. Tilly Falkowsky of Kelowna. The couple received many beautiful flowers, gifts, and cards from their children, grandchildren, great grandchildren, and friends, and congratulatory wishes from Mayor Parkinson.

ANN LANDERS

Mixed Marriages Raise Problems For Children

Dear Ann Landers: I've read several letters in your column about mixed marriages. Most of the letters are from adults. Now I would like to tell you how a mixed marriage looks through the eyes of a 16-year-old girl.

My name is Peggy Goldstein. My mother is Lutheran. My father is Jewish. My parents decided when they married, 20 years ago, that their children would choose the religion they wanted when they were old enough.

When I was eight, my Jewish grandmother wanted me to go to her Temple Sunday School. I went and took my brother along. Two other brothers went to Lutheran Sunday School. One day my mother got mad at my dad because he didn't show any interest in his Temple. She said it was too much trouble for her to drive two kids to Temple and two kids to Lutheran Sunday School so we would all have to go to the Lutheran Church.

When I was 15 I was the most mixed-up kid in town. I missed my Jewish workshop and felt ill at ease in the Lutheran church. The Lutheran boys wouldn't ask me out because my name was Goldstein. The Jewish boys wouldn't ask me out because they figured I was Lutheran. Finally I told my mother I wanted to be Jewish and that settled it.

For the first time in my life I feel like a whole human being. And you can bet your boots, Ann Landers, that I will never marry out of my faith. I wouldn't put my children through the agony I have suffered for anything in the world.

Please print my letter but change my name. Thank you.

FISH WITH FEATHERS

Dear Feathers: Here is your letter and I have changed your name. But you can be sure that there are many Peggy Goldsteins in the country and I will undoubtedly hear from a lot of them.

Your letter underscores a vital point which I have been trying to get across for years. When individuals of different faiths marry (and I'm against it in the first place), the cruelest thing they can do to their children is ask them to choose between a father's and a mother's religion. This decision should be agreed upon before the children are born and there should be no mind-changing.

Dear Ann Landers: I am a beauty salon owner-operator who would like to set the record straight. The woman who complained about all that cigarette smoke in the beauty salon must patronize a crummy dump.

If women patrons smoke, we cannot ask them to put out their cigarettes. But her complaint that the operators smoke incessantly (she was almost set on fire when a beautician dropped a cigarette on her) was too much!

It is against all State Board Regulations for operators to smoke while working on patrons. Every operator knows this. Operators who disregard the regulations should be reminded.

LONG BRANCH, N.J.
Dear N.J.: Hear ye, all women whose operators smoke: Clip this column and take it to the beauty shop on your next visit. (You will probably lose your standing appointment for 3:00 p.m., Saturday, moved to Tuesday at 9:00 a.m.)

Centennial Costume Ball Held By Okanagan Hotel Ass'n

By FLORA EVANS

A gay Centennial costume banquet and dance brought to a close the seminar held by the Okanagan Hotel Association at the Capri Motor Hotel on Monday.

Guest speakers at the morning management session were Ernest Schmutz, director of food and accommodation service for the Department of Education, who spoke on communications; and Gordon Phillips, executive chef of the Royal Towers Hotel in New Westminster, whose topic was food control. Stanley Smith of Vancouver, chairman of labour relations for B.C. Hotels opened the afternoon session. Jim Vernon, president of the B.C. Hotels Association spoke on current association activities, and Bud Scott of B.C. Hydro spoke on the advantageous uses of electricity.

Criminoline ladies, wearing hats, or gay crinolines, flappers of the roaring twenties, Indians, gamblers, men about town, the Hanging Judge, and a Coldstream Guard gathered for the friendship hour and dinner preceding the dance in the evening, and framing the long dinner tables set for some 60 guests was a clever mural painted by Mrs. Palmer Hoem of Keremeos. A conversation piece, the mural depicted the various hotels of the Valley set in amusing topical scenes, causing vast amusement.

Prior to the delicious dinner, Walter Magee, president of the Okanagan Association, welcomed the guests and asked the members to introduce their visitors of the evening, some of which came from as far as Quebec and Winnipeg, then following the delicious meal dancing to the music of Charles Pettman's orchestra took place interspersed with delightful entertainment.

T. L. Mooney, who arranged the entertainment, introduced Bruce Mearns who acted as master of ceremonies and started off the fun with an impersonation of Louis Armstrong singing Hello Dolly, following with stories and several other numbers accompanied by Red Hughes and his big base fiddle. Andy Port entertained with singing impersonations of Dean Martin, Al Jolson and Johnny Marthis. Fred Monahan sang a number of Scottish and Irish songs accompanying himself on his guitar, and Vic and Dorothy Chabot sang French Canadian and English duets of the past century. In fact there was never a dull moment. Much later in the evening two far out ladies of 1967 appeared — who shall remain anonymous. A grand march was held to enable the judges to choose the winning costumes, which must have been an almost impossible task as everyone had entered into the spirit of the occasion and taken great pains with their appearance. Two particularly attractive gay unities costumes were a blue crinoline topped with a quite enchanting bonnet, and a green velvet outfit, reminiscent of the grand side-saddle riding costumes the ladies wore.

Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Hoem of Keremeos who were awarded the prize for the best dressed couple, represented a banker and his wife of the gay nineties. Mr. Hoem was debonair and handsome in a pearl grey suit of the period and Mrs. Hoem's pink dress was worn over a crinoline and she wore a charming flower trimmed bonnet. Mr. and Mrs. Bill MacLennan of Lumby won the prize for the most amusing pair as a couple of zany Indians, and Cedric Stringer of Kelowna in the fur coat and pork pie hat so familiar at football games in the twenties won the prize for the most amusing man. Mrs. George Scott in a red and silver flapper costume edged with black fringe and the familiar hair band of the roaring twenties won first prize for the ladies, and a special prize was awarded Mrs. M. J. (Flora) Evans who was dressed as a belle of the eighties for her period hairo of blond ringlets.

Notable at the party was the good fellowship of the hotel people of the Valley, and if wearing Centennial Costumes can add to the spirit of fun and gaiety of an occasion as it did at this party, all I can say is, let's have lots and lots of Centennial costume parties in Kelowna this spring and summer.

AROUND TOWN

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. McGowan of Vancouver are spending a few days in Kelowna at the Capri Motor Hotel while visiting Mrs. McGowan's mother, Mrs. F. R. E. DeHart, and her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Guy DeHart, and Mr. McGowan's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gaddes.

Winning players at the Monday afternoon session of the Verna Marie Bridge Club, held at the Longhorn in the Stetson Village, were: N/S, first, Mrs. Clifford Cram and Mrs. G. A. Brown; second, Mrs. Michael Reid and Mrs. Gordon Holmes; third a tie between Mrs. Ernest Butchart and Mrs. Clifford Ham, and Mrs. Dennis Purcell and Mrs. C. Warren Wilkinson. E/W, first, Mrs. Ray Bowman and Mrs. David Allan; second, Mrs. W. M. Trotter and Mrs. R. J. Buchanan; third, Mrs. Roy Vannatter and Mrs. Leslie Real.

More than 60 Kelowna Gyros, their wives and guests, enjoyed a fun evening at the Mountain Shadows Country Club on Saturday evening. Starting with a cutlerama the fun continued with an Irish corn beef supper followed by Irish Folk Singer Fred Monahan, and a sing-song led by Orval Lavell. Prize winners for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Murray Joyce, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lennie, Dr. and Mrs. Ronald Ellis and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Johnston.

A visitor from England who spent the past week as the guest of Dr. and Mrs. A. W. N. Drutt at Pine Crest, is Mrs. Drutt's step-daughter, Mrs. A. Vine, who is presently visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. Musow in Vernon.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Utley are the latter's brother, Clifford Robillard from Campbell's Bay, P.Q., and her sister, Mrs. Gerard Landry of Ottawa, who arrived on Sunday for a month's visit.

SURPRISE PARTY MARKS GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Denis were very pleasantly surprised when some 34 friends and neighbours arrived at their home in Rutland Friday evening to help them celebrate their Golden Wedding Anniversary. The surprise party was arranged by their next door neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Dilbeck, and the anniversary couple were presented with a 400 Day Clock from the friends assembled. Married in Regina in 1917 Mr.

and Mrs. Denis took up residence in Rutland in 1952. They have no children but received many lovely gifts and flowers from Mr. Denis' three brothers and their families at the Coast, and a long distance phone call from his sister in Calgary.

Congregational Dinner Held At Rutland United Church

The annual congregational dinner was held in the Rutland United Church basement hall on Sunday evening, taking the form of a pot luck supper, with each family bringing their favorite dish, and the ladies of the UCU supervising the serving.

There was a good attendance at this affair, which is held each year on or near the anniversary of the opening of the church.

Following the supper there was a short but interesting program with Rev. Arthur Mundy acting as chairman. This included a hymn sing period, songs by the junior choir, directed by Mrs. Pearl Slater and some interesting and amusing movies shown by Art Geen.

Rev. E. S. Fleming had on display an interesting souvenir of the early days, a quilt made by the Ladies' Aid of the Rutland Methodist Church almost 60 years ago, on which the names of almost every member of the congregation of that day had been sewn by hand. This had been a fund-raising project, at 10 cents a name and later his father had bought the quilt at an auction for $25, adding further to the Ladies' Aid fund.

Canadian Blue Jeans Travel To Poland

SACKVILLE, N.B. (CP) — An 18-year-old Polish schoolgirl will get her pair of "original, splendid Canadian blue jeans."

The girl, who wrote to "Sir Lord Mayor of the Town of Sackville," said the blue jeans are available in Poland only on the black market and cost "a lot of money."

Town council assigned Alderman Tony Vanam to find the jeans, preferably with the "broad legs" asked by the girl.

Council decided to withhold the girl's name because she was writing from behind the Iron Curtain.

The girl said her father's hobby is geography and it was through his map-studying that this New Brunswick community was selected.

She said she couldn't afford black market jeans and "I am very, very sorrowful."

Council decided to toss in a T-shirt with Sackville named on the front.

Lopsided Game Tough On Goaler

VIENNA (CP)—Shed a tear of joy for the underdog out in the world hockey tournament. Fellow like Hans Schmenger, for instance, Haas is the West German netminder who was beaten 13 times Tuesday by Canada's national team.

Yet he made 48 saves, 41 of them in the third period. The Nationals wound up with the most lopsided victory of the tournament, crushing West Germany 13-1.

The pucks flew at Schmenger at the rate of one every 20 seconds in the last 20 minutes when the Canadians completed the rout by scoring five goals. It was Canada's third straight win and a real morale-builder for the forwards who hadn't been scoring. The team picked up 20 assists.

HUCK SCORES THREE
Centre Fran Huck of Regina was high man with three goals and three assists. He's the team top point - getting now with a total of nine - four goals and five assists.

In the tournament scoring race, Huck is in second place, a point behind Russia's Anatoly Firsov, who has four goals and six assists.

Canada, Russia and Czechoslovakia remain in a three-way tie for first place, each with six points and 3-0 won-lost records. The Russians humiliated East Germany 12-0 Tuesday and the Czechs defeated the United States 8-3. Sweden kept its medal hopes alive with a convincing 5-1 victory over Finland.

But Canada's margin of play was by far the best of the contenders. The Canadians had an 81-9 margin in shots on goal, the Russians were 71-26 and the Czechs 83-25.

East German goalie Klaus Hirsch left in disgust after two periods with the Russians ahead 7-0. Hirsch had 44 saves. Peter Kolbe, his successor, could do little to rally the demoralized East German side.

The Americans fell apart against the Czechs in the third period after holding them to a 4-2 margin. The Czech pressure produced four third-period goals.

American goalie Carl Wetzel finished the game with a blood-plenty of hussle here. Their soaked bandage round his forehead after being clipped by a stick in the third period. He cleared 75 shots, a tournament high, and made 33 stops in the third period.

... top Nat. scorer

NO PLAY TODAY
No games are on tap today in either the eight-country championship round-robin or the consolation B group.

There is a full schedule Thursday with Canada playing the U.S. Russia meets West Germany, the Czechs play Finland and Sweden plays East Germany.

Canada's first major clash of the tournament is against Czechoslovakia Saturday at 2:30 p.m. EST. Then came the Russians next Monday and finally Sweden next Wednesday.

Right now the Canadians are not conceding a thing to the Russians, who are gunning for their fifth straight title.

"We have beaten the Russians before and we can do it again," said Canadian coach Jackie McLeod.

WILL SCORE MORE
Team adviser Rev. David Bauer added: "We'll do that by scoring more goals."

Canada last won a title in 1961 when Trail Smoke Eaters whipped Russia 5-1.

The Canadians have showed finished the game with a blood-plenty of hussle here. Their penalties, second highest in to mat. They have 52 minutes. The Americans lead with 64.

The Nationals were always pressing against the West Germans Tuesday, so much so that the West Germans got pretty rough themselves.

Three times referees and players had to step between brawling players, but nobody got more than minor penalties.

DREW 14 PENALTIES
The Canadians drew a tournament high of 14 penalties while the West Germans got six.

Huck, a five-foot-seven 168 pounder, went to the penalty box three times.

Canada - born Ed Reigle, the West German coach, complained about Huck's behavior.

Near the end of the game Huck checked West Germany's Seno Teif against the boards and the two players later exchanged blows.

"His behavior was 'a little surprising,'" said Reigle. "This boy is so short and such a great technician that one finds it surprising to see him act the way he did."

HIT IN FACE
But Huck was on the receiving end, too. Kurt Schloder hit him in the face with his stick early in the third period, but only 10 seconds after Schloder entered the penalty box. Huck scored the second of his three goals.

McLeod criticized referees Max Braun of Switzerland and Ted Daily of the U.S.

"We've had these guys before," he said. "They are both incompetent. They called ridiculous penalties."

McLeod made only one lineup change for the game. He replaced veteran goalie Seth Martin of Trail with young Wayne Stephenson of Fort William, Ont.

McLeod announced Monday night that he was going to change his top forward line but he didn't.

HIT TOP GEAR
Whether this was a psychological move or not, the top line of centre Gay Dineen of Montreal, Billy MacMillan of Charlottetown and Jean Cusson of Montreal finally reached high gear.

Dineen, without a point in the first two starts, had a goal and four assists, MacMillan a goal and two assists and Cusson two goals.

Other Canadian goals were scored by Roger Bourbonnais of Edmonton, Ted Hargreaves of Weyburn, Sask., Addy Tambellini of Trail, his fifth of the tournament, defenceman Carl Brewer of Toronto, Marshall Johnston of Birch Hills, Sask., and Morris Mott of Creelman, Sask.

Stephenson, playing his first world tournament game, might have had a shutout but he let a dribbler by Schloder slip by late in the final period when Canada led 13-0.

Stephenson had only nine shots to handle.

Clay Target For Zora's Volley?

NEW YORK (AP)—Everyone but Zora Folley and the small group around him seems to feel that the 34-year-old veteran is just another opponent for heavyweight boxing champion Cassius Clay at Madison Square Garden tonight.

The swaggering, 25-year-old all-conquering Clay is a 5-0-1 favorite to whip the mid-mannered, quiet No. 1 contender in the televised 15-rounder.

There has been virtually no wagering on the outcome except for a few bets on whether the fight will go the distance. It's 5-to-13 that it doesn't go the limit and 5-to-9 it doesn't go 10 rounds.

Starting time is 7:30 p.m. PDT with CBC-TV national coverage starting at 7 p.m.

It's a ripe situation for an upset. But Clay, winner of all 28 of his pro fights and making his seventh title defence within a year and his ninth in all, seems supremely confident.

For a change Clay hasn't predicted the round but Angelo Dundee, his trainer, has forecast a fourth-round knockout victory.

Folley, unbeaten in his last 12 fights in a 3½-year span, said:

"I'm going to win by decision or by a knockout. I'm going to be the next heavyweight champion."

He doesn't seem convincing. Still, the scientific challenger from Chandler, Ariz., has the tools to do the job.

He has a 74-74 won-lost-draw record, including 40 knockouts. But he has been stopped five times, the last by Doug Jones in the seventh round Dec. 15, 1962.

Despite the long odds, indicating the Korean War veteran and father of eight hasn't a chance, the fight will do good business.

The Garden expects a crowd of upwards of 16,000 to pay between $300,000 and $400,000 at prices ranging from $8 to $50.

Clay will earn about $300,000 on his 50 per cent in the Garden receipts and a $150,000 guarantee from the ancillaries-television, movies, etc.

Folley will collect about $70,000 on his 15 per cent of the gate and $25,000 from the ancillaries.

Scoring will be by the rounds system. The referee and two judges will be named at fight time.

Eight ounce gloves will be used, there will be a mandatory eight count for knockdowns, and if a fighter is knocked down three times in one round the fight will be stopped. The count will be continued if a fighter is down when the bell rings except for the end of the last round.

Clay expected to weigh 206 pounds. Folley was aiming to scale between 200 and 205.

Canada Loses Game But Goes On Joyride

PERTH Scotland (CP)—Tuesday was a day Canadian curling champion Alfie Phillips Jr. of Toronto probably would like to forget.

Not only did his rink lose its first match at the world championships - 12-5 to the United States - after four straight victories, but Phillips and lead Keith Reilly came within a hair's-breadth of being arrested after borrowing the team bus without permission and then running it into a wire fence.

The loss dropped them into second place tied with Scotland, skipped by Chuck Hay, behind Bruce Robert's undefeated U.S. entry from Seattle, Wash.

Behind the top three with a 3-2 won-lost record is Sweden followed by Switzerland, Germany, France and Norway, all with one win in five games.

Canada and Scotland are in good position to take their fifth victories in the sixth round today - Canada meeting France and Scotland playing Norway - but the United States may have it's work cut out in meeting Sweden, skipped by Bob Woods of Carman, Man., while Germany and Switzerland tangle.

Phillips and Reilly had just finished defeating Norway 17-8 in the morning round when they spotted the unattended, running bus outside the arena. Thinking of taking a short tour, they got only 100 yards when they hit the fence and the driver discovered his loss. No charges were laid.

The top four finishers in the round-robin competition now under way move into Thursday's semi-finals and the semi-final winners meet for the championship Thursday night.

In Tuesday's other fifth-round action, Sweden defeated Germany 12-7, Scotland trounced Switzerland 19-4 and Norway beat France 13-8.

Phillips recovered from his brush with the law to take his fourth-round game from Germany 17-3 while the U.S., with lead Doug Walker of Pilot Mound, Min., defeated Germany 11-4 in the third round and Norway 13-6 in the fourth.

School Curling Bonspiel Highlights Busy Weekend

The first ever B.C. high school girls' curling championship will be held at the Kelowna Curling Club Monday.

One rink from each of the Pacific coast region, the Kootenays, the Northern Interior and the South Okanagan are entered.

The South Okanagan is represented by the Kelowna Secondary School which won the right to enter the playdowns by winning a tournament in Penticton early in the year. Members of the rink are: lead Marilyn Rumble; second, Pat Nault; third, Donna Hammond and skip Dianne Harris.

The tournament will be a round robin affair, with each of the four rinks meeting the others once. If a tie results, the teams concerned will play a sudden death contest.

The first draw Monday begins at 9:30 a.m. and the other two games will be at 1 p.m. and 4 p.m.

The teams will compete for the Dan McNaughton Memorial Trophy. Mr. McNaughton was the past president of the Pacific Coast Curling Association.

Also this weekend is the Kelowna Open mixed bonspiel. Nearly 50 rinks are entered in the bonspiel, which begins at 9 a.m. Friday and continues through to Sunday. There are four events, with prizes amounting to $1,000.

High School Bowling Meet To Decide Western Title

The Western Canada High School five pin bowling championships will be held in Kelowna district April 1.

Teams from Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta and from eight zones in B.C. will be entered. Each zone will send three teams of five members each—girls, boys and mixed.

The Okanagan-Mainline zone will be represented by a girls' team from the Dr. Knox Secondary School in Kelowna. A boys' team from Vernon and a mixed squad from Salmon Arm will also battle for honours.

These teams were awarded the playoff berths as a result of rolloffs in North Kamloops Saturday.

The team from the Dr. Knox Secondary School topped all girls' teams in the rolloffs. Members are Linda Ueda, Mary Toole, Kathy Gibson, Beverly Mills and Wendy Nichols.

The championships will be run this way: Each team will bowl one game and the scores will be telephoned to a central office probably Edmonton. All teams will be bowling simultaneously and results and standings will be sent back so teams will know what position they are in within minutes after bowling.

Held at the same time are the B.C. high school championships, the top scores from this province only in each of the three categories will decide the best in B.C.

There will be 120 bowlers from B.C. bowling at three local alleys. The girls bowl in Rutland at the Valley Lanes, the boys bowl at the Bowladrome in Kelowna and the mixed squad bowls at the Meridian also in Kelowna. First game starts at 11 a.m.

Trophies will be awarded to the top team in each category plus individual trophies to each member of a winning team.

The high single for the boys and girls will be recognized also. Zone pennants will be given to each B.C. winner.

Skaters End Busy Season

Many skaters passed their preliminary dances at the Kelowna Memorial Arena Sunday to help round out a busy season for the Kelowna Figure Skating Club.

Receiving passing grades in the Dutch dance were Rita Druheska, Kerry Ann Robertson, Janice Fewell, Kathy Kamgan, Wendy Bernot, Sandra Ritchie, Joanne VanLaak, Marie Fomby, Diane Senger and Janice Hewlett.

Successful in the canasta dance are Wendy Bernot, Joanne VanLaak and Diane Senger.

Passing the swing dance requirements are Jane Quinn, George Anne Bishard, Janet Gavey, Marie Fomby and Deanne Riebstrom.

Skaters passing their figure tests were: preliminary test, Kay Fawcett, Lela Ewer, Fay Morrison, Jane Riech, Kathy Kamgan and Wendy Bernot; first test, Janice Hewlett, second test, Anne Bishard, Judy Gavey and Marie Fomby.

Formula Of Wage Settlement Accepted By Railway Union

OTTAWA (CP) — Negotiators for the Canadian Brotherhood of Railway, Transport and General Workers have agreed to accept a railway wage settlement formula providing an increase of 24 per cent over three years, informants said Tuesday.

Final details of the acceptance were being worked out in discussions at Montreal today and a formal announcement was expected within a few hours.

The package will be submitted to a vote of the union's 20,000 railway members, almost all of them employed by the CNR. The CBRT represents a wide variety of non-operating railway employees such as clerks, baggage men and freight handlers.

The informants said the settlement includes several fringe items not covered in the original railway offer made during mediation late last fall. The CBRT walked out of the mediation sessions.

If the union's membership accepts the package it will leave only the seven international shop-craft unions without a settlement of the year-old dispute which caused a seven-day national strike last summer in which Parliament was forced to intervene.

The shop crafts, representing about 25,000 skilled tradesmen in railway repair shops, are demanding higher wage differentials to bring them in line with tradesmen in other industries.

Opening lead—two of hearts. A fine declarer is expected to play most hands just as effectively as though he has seen all four hands. He may not hit the mark 100% of the time, but his reasoning, based on the many deductions he can draw from the bidding or the play, nearly always leads him to the right conclusion.

Here is a deal where declarer played as though he had seen all 52 cards. Had he placed his faith solely on the success of a diamond finesse he would eventually have gone down, but, instead, South deliberately avoided the trump finesse and thus made the slam.

West led a heart, dummy played low, and South won the six with the ace. Declarer then finessed the queen of spades, cashed the king of hearts on which he discarded a spade, and ruffed a heart.

Continuing his plan not to lead trumps, he returned to dummy with a spade and ruffed the jack of hearts. All 13 hearts having been accounted for, South then cashed the A-K of clubs and ruffed a club. Nine tricks had been played and this was now the position:

North
 ♥ J 9

 ♥ J 9

South
 ♠ 10

 ♦ A K 10
 ♣ 10

When South led the ten of spades at this point, West was forced to ruff the trick and played a trump to bring the well-played hand to a dramatic conclusion. In effect, declarer preserved a possible trump finesse against the queen until late in the play, and was then able to avoid it entirely by compelling West to lead away from the queen.

ISSUE OF

$475,000,000

(OR THEREABOUTS)

NON-CALLABLE

GOVERNMENT OF CANADA BONDS

DATED APRIL 1, 1967

Bank of Canada is authorized by the Minister of Finance to receive subscriptions for a loan, to be issued for cash as follows:

$350,000,000
(OR THEREABOUTS)

1 year 4½% bonds due April 1, 1968
 Issue price: 99.85%
 Yielding about 4.66% to maturity

Interest payable October 1 and April 1
 Denominations: $1,000, $5,000, $25,000, $100,000 and $1,000,000

and

5 year 6 month 5% bonds due October 1, 1973
 Issue price: 98½%
 Yielding about 5.21% to maturity

Interest payable October 1 and April 1
 Denominations: $1,000, $5,000, $25,000, $100,000 and $1,000,000

and

$125,000,000 — 23 year 1 month 5½% bonds due May 1, 1990
 Issue price: 97.00%
 Yielding about 5.48% to maturity

Interest payable May 1 and November 1
 One month's interest payable May 1, 1967
 Denominations: $500, $1,000, $5,000, $25,000, and $100,000.

The Minister of Finance reserves the right to accept or reject in whole or in part any subscription and to allot a total of not less than 90% (i.e. $315,000,000) and not more than 110% (i.e. $385,000,000) of the above amount of the 1968 and 1973 maturities.

Bank of Canada has agreed to acquire a minimum of $115,000,000, open as to maturity, of the 4½% Bonds due April 1, 1968 and the new 5% Bonds due October 1, 1973 and a minimum of $35,000,000 of the new 5½% Bonds due May 1, 1990.

Proceeds of the offering will be used to redeem $170,000,000 of Government of Canada 4½% Bonds due April 1, 1967 and $155,000,000 of Government of Canada 4½% Bonds due April 1, 1967 and for general purposes of the Government of Canada, including advances to the Canadian National Railway Company in connection with the retirement of $72,300,000 of Canadian National Railway Company 4½% Bonds also due April 1, 1967.

The new 5% Bonds due October 1, 1973, are an addition to $275,000,000 of 5% Bonds due October 1, 1973 dated February 1, 1965. The new 5½% Bonds due May 1, 1990, are an addition to $225,000,000 of 5½% Bonds due May 1, 1990, dated May 1, 1964, July 1, 1964 and September 1, 1965.

The new issues will be dated April 1, 1967 and will bear interest from that date. Principal and interest are payable in lawful money of Canada. Principal is payable at any Agency of Bank of Canada. Interest is payable at any branch in Canada of any chartered bank without charge. Definitive bonds will be available on or about April 3, 1967, (without payment of accrued interest) and thereafter in two forms: bearer form with coupons attached and fully registered form with interest payable by cheque. Bonds of both forms will be in the same denominations and fully interchangeable as to denomination and/or form without charge (subject to Government transfer requirements where applicable).

The new Bonds are authorized pursuant to an Act of the Parliament of Canada and both principal and interest are a charge on the Consolidated Revenue Fund of Canada.

Subscriptions, subject to allotment, may be made to Bank of Canada, Ottawa, through any investment dealer eligible to act as a primary distributor or through any bank in Canada.

APOLLO FIRE NOT PINPOINTED

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) - A board of review expects to conclude its investigation of the Apollo 1 fire within a few days without pinpointing the exact cause of the fire that killed three astronauts.

For several weeks the board, aided by 1,500 experts, had conducted a methodical search for clues to the cause of the spacecraft blaze during a launch-pad test Jan. 27.

It believes the fire was started by an electrical malfunction under the couch of air force Lt. Col. Virgil I. Grissom, the command pilot. Specialists have narrowed the possible sources to five or six, mostly short circuits, but are unable to determine whether these caused the fire or resulted from it.

Killed with Grissom in the flaming Apollo 1 cabin were air force Lt. Col. Edward H. White II and navy Lt. Cmdr. Roger B. Chaffee.

Another question is the effect of Grissom's failure to depressurize the cabin when the fire was discovered. One of his first duties in such an emergency was to operate a lever to start reducing the 16.2 - pounds - a - square-inch pressure in the pure-oxygen environment. This might have slowed the spread of flames, but experts are uncertain whether it would have been enough.

Premier Bennett told the B.C. Legislature Tuesday the provincial government will pay a third of the cost of a new $500,000 high school sports stadium to be built at the Lower Mainland, at the same time the premier said the freeze on activity room and gymnasium construction in B.C. schools has ended.

George Leong, 66, owner of a Vancouver cafe, who told police in January he was robbed of $175 by two young men who also set fire to his restaurant, was fined $1,000, jailed a day and given a two-year suspended sentence on a $2,000 good-behaviour bond when convicted of arson.

The Queen plans a private visit to France May 27 and 28, Buckingham Palace sources said Tuesday night. The Queen plans to stay in Normandy as guest of the Duke of Audifret-Pasquier at the Chateau de Sassy par Virgny, Orne. Both the Queen and her host are thoroughbred horse-breeding enthusiasts.

Manpower Minister Marchand dropped a strong hint Tuesday night in Ottawa that the government is planning legislation that would compel employers to give workers at least three months notice of automated work methods affecting their jobs.

Opposition Leader Diefenbaker raised in the Commons Tuesday what he called disquieting reports of a $100,000,000 deficit for Expo 67 and asked whether a "fabulous" $13,000,000 is being spent on advertising the world's fair in the United States.

Trade Minister Winters declined either to confirm or deny the figure, saying the question of a deficit depends entirely on public response to Expo.

NAMES IN NEWS

Children's Accidents Too Costly

More children are killed per capita in Canada than in any other country in the world, a medical professor told delegates to the maternal and child health conference in Ottawa Tuesday. Dr. John Read of Queen's University said the accident death rate was 118 for every 100,000 children in the one-to-four age group. This "astounding" record was the worst for any country in which reliable statistics were available.

The St. Patrick's Day appearance of three servicemen on Parliament Hill in dark green uniforms was authorized by Defence Minister Hellyer and Lt. Gen. Jean V. Allard, chief of defence staff, the Commons was told Tuesday. Mr. Hellyer gave the information but declined to tell Opposition Leader Diefenbaker whether the uniforms represent the government's intended walking-out dress for the proposed single service.

The South Korean cabinet decided Tuesday to hold presidential elections May 3 but said it would not schedule parliamentary balloting until the government and the chief opposition parties agree on a date. President Chung Hee Park has been nominated by the ruling Democratic Republican party for a second four-year term.

Princess Margaret's home was burglarized early today, but officials said the burglar was captured soon after with gold coins and other property he had stolen. Officials said no one at Kensington Palace was disturbed.

In Sao Paulo, Brazil, local authorities reported Tuesday that 136 bodies have been recovered in the storm-shattered seaside resort of Caraguatatuba, 125 miles from here, and 300 more were feared to be still buried under mud and debris. Mayor Geraldo Nogueira de Silva said reconstruction of the popular resort, halfway between here and Rio de Janeiro, might take two years.

We get stubborn at times

Some of our customers get a little "mulish" when we insist on certain alterations to the suit they've chosen. To them, it looks and feels fine but we know better. So we get just as stubborn as they do. After all, when the Man's paid good money for a suit cut from cloth by some of the world's most famous manufacturers, we're not of a mind to stand idly by and see him walk out the door if it's not fitted absolutely perfectly. We'd feel like a jackass! And who wants that? You can kick up a storm as long as you like but after we're finished and your best friend ask you "Gee, Bill, where did you get that suit? - it looks smart!" you'll really feel like kicking up your heels. Trot in tomorrow!

Chevrier Assured Of Niche In Anglo-Canadian Relations

LONDON (CP)—Lionel Chevrier has assured himself of a permanent niche in Anglo-Canadian diplomacy—his name is embossed in bronze in the foyer of Canada House.

About 200 diplomats from 68 countries stood patiently in the lobby today as the high commissioner read a long speech on Canadian history before he unveiled the plaque. He later treated the visitors to champagne.

Chevrier leaves his job at the end of March to become chief "greeter" for Canada during Centennial Year.

He said he believes it is in that capacity rather than as high commissioner that the Canadian government "invited me to officially reopen the renovated Canada House."

The plaque notes that the renovations, carried out over a period of 22 months, were completed during the Centennial Year and the building officially opened by Lionel Chevrier, high commissioner during 1964-67.

Actually, the building was never closed. Geoffrey Murray, deputy high commissioner, told guests the office employees had to suffer through the prolonged banging when the Canadian diplomatic headquarters in London became "the house of a thousand hammers."

Canada House is a five-storey buff building at the edge of Trafalgar Square. It features Nelson's Column and thousands of food-seeking pigeons and attracts hundreds of tourists daily.

The Canadian building has been extended to take in premises at the rear formerly occupied by the Royal College of Physicians. Over all cost of renovation and extension was about $2,000,000.

Chevrier noted that Canada's high commission here was established in 1880. The first high commissioner was Sir Alexander Galt, one of the Fathers of Confederation. Since that time there have been 10 commissioners, including Vincent Massey, Norman Robertson, Dana Wilgress and George Drew.

In recent years, governments have tended to appoint veteran politicians, such as Drew and Chevrier, to this high post. But with the departure of Chevrier, the appointment will revert to a career man. Chevrier told reporters his successor likely will be Charles Ritchie, Canada's NATO ambassador and a veteran diplomat.
